The Triple Royal Sky Walker is an exercise machine that is out of this world. It will give patrons an aerobic workout. Aerobic exercise has been shown to be the most effective in losing weight, increasing stamina and endurance, strengthening the immune system and heart, and boosting moods while reducing stress. It also provides a low impact workout that won't put patrons at the risk of hurting themselves; making it perfect for retirement homes. Patrons can choose between three different units with different capacities. The Triple Royal Sky Walker holds three, the Double Sky Walker holds two and the Single Sky Walker holds one. The three-person version comes with an instructional guide that is built into the unit. It details how to properly use the equipment and yield the best results. A new you is right around the corner.
