Triple the fun at your dog park with the Three Hoop Puppy Jump from MyTCoat. The series of ascending rings provides a slowly growing challenge for newbies and old-hands alike. The solid steel structure is coated with MyTCoat's Industry Standard coating to protect against the click-clack of little claws and the elements of its outdoor home. The Three Hoop Puppy Jump is cleverly modeled into a dog from the three levels of hoops with increasing difficulty. To take it to the next level, it even has perky ears and an almost wagging tail to show its own excitement at the dogs that will come play with it. The design also connects the rings together to keep them in place. The unit will be sure to stay in place for a long time as it is designed with an in-ground mount to keep it in place.
