Kids will learn the letters of the alphabet and improve their counting skills with the educational, adorable, and whimsical Ten Foot Square Sandbox. The perimeter of the sandbox features a hunter green border with white lettering, evoking old-fashioned chalkboards. Besides adding old-school charm, the letters and numbers can also act as coordinates, inviting children to search for “buried treasure” through hints and clues. The sandbox makes a great educational tie-in for teachers or a fabulous addition to any backyard. The sandbox includes a heavy-duty, breathable fabric cover to keep your treasures safe from the elements or pests!
