Kids will have super fun with the 4-Foot Wave Super Slide. If a thrilling drop is what a kid craves, look no further. This wavy slide always keeps the excitement dialed up with its enjoyable, intuitive and attractive design. Children will start at the galvanized steel stairs, make their way up using the safety handrails and then stand at the top. The rotationally molded plastic slide will then guide them swiftly to the ground; keeping them entranced the whole way down. The process is sure to repeat itself once the fun has started. The 4-Foot Wave Super Slide's stairs are perforated to make gripping easier and prevents water from pooling. You can also make this slide personalized by requesting a different color to fit your needs. The perfected design of this slide will continue to enchant children who will get wrapped up in its joy.
