Complete with windows, a doorway, and a roof, the Driftwood Inn Play Hut will quickly become a popular destination for your weary playground travelers. This play hut makes children feel at home, and makes a wonderful addition to one's existing repertoire of play structures, swings, and other types of commercial playground equipment. The Inn is anchored into the ground by four sturdy 5-inch posts, which increase the longevity of the Driftwood Inn Play Hut and ensure that its roof remains stationary even in the case of inclement weather. Driftwood Inn works great either as a standalone play amenity or as a possible connection point between two pieces of equipment, thanks to its dual entry and exit points. The Driftwood Inn Play Hut will provide shade for kids who need to get out of the sun, and imaginative fun for all who use it.
